And from the Income of said Premisses my Wife shall educate my Children untill the aforesaid Term and my sons shall during said Term be obedient to her mother, but each of said Sons shall be free of his Mother, when fourteen years of age, provided he intends to learn a Trade. 2. I order that in four Weeks after my Death all my Personal Estate shall be sold by public Vendue, except my Bedd, a Wardrobe the best low, which I bequeath to my Wife and from the money arising from thence, my Debts shall be paid and the Residue shall be disposed as hereafter shall be said. 3. I order that, when my Son John is of age, all my Lands shall be valued by four Freeholders indifferently chosen between my wife and Heirs, and the Interest of one third Part of the Valuation-money shall be paid from thence forth to my wife during the Term of her natural Life according to Law and each of my Heirs inheriting said my Lands, shall pay his proportionable share in said Interest, for which each must give good Security, if demanded by my Executors. I order, that my Wife during the Term of her Widohood shall have her residence in my House unmolested, but if she could not well agree with him